BORIS THE SPIDER

A Journal of Deplorable Doings, Ram
Power, and Naked Greed

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave
When first we practice deceit!"

HAPPY NEW YEAR! ANDERSON PREVAILS!

We've made a few subtle changes during the Christmas break. The first is to change the issue date to be the date I actually print the issue. We've added subscription prices for Canada and overseas. We also came very close to upgrading to a PowerMac from my venerable Apple IIx.

Congratulations go to Dave Anderson who piloted the Gaidin to victory in our third game of DUNE.

We have a quorum for (ADW) CIV, but still no workable trading system. We have enough for two editions of BRITANNIA, so we'll be running one of those strictly by e-mail. The e-mail section will be Zedda, Hains, Quist and X Wilson, and we'll start as soon as I get color preferences. The "normal" section will be Beck, Brylum, Anderson, and Zieker and will start in March after the current game ends (need color preferences). Morrison is alternate for both. House Rules appear on p.9. "Boris X" is ready to go. Our schemes will be dark Shackleth (Austria), Pan Fisher (England), Marcel Carbonhead (France), Peter Bayum (Germany), Rudy Zedda (Italy), Dave Anderson (Pussia), and Seth Gunar (Turkey). Tu Klausette is the alternate. Orders for Spring 1991 will be due in March.

STANDBY ALERT: Wayne Melnick NMRd as Russia in "Boris IX". Anyone interested in assuming the position should be not return should submit stand-by orders. Mc Nag will randomly choose from those submitted.

Spring Semester has sprung, so I'm now teaching Monday and Wednesday nights. Those prone to phoning should keep that in mind until May when THE PRESS

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: Warning: GM gets whimsical when bored.

—Button sent to Boris for Christmas by Ron Fisher.

Marcel Carbonhead is willing to GM some special games of WISARD'S QUEST, OUTDOOR SURVIVAL, and SOURCE OF THE NILE. I'm in for WG. Contact him for further details.

Boris was voted "Rookie GM of the Year" in the 1995 Rubestone Fall. We're honored, but am unsure whether we're really eligible, having placed 2nd in the "Best Game" category in 1999 and seeing that this is the 124th issue of "Boris" in nearly 11 years and the 66th since we went multigame. Thank ya'll for your support.

The last two issues of THE GENERAL have had amounts of interest to come of our readers. Vol 30, #2 had a BRITANNIA variant bringing in Ireland, and Vol 30 #3 reprinted the "Persistence of Culture" variant from Declination.

Te'l Dierke will have a new area code, effective 20 Jan. '84??. We now list Mike Quist's phone number.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes to the author of the New Orleans/Mule Whipper article in "Boris VIII", winning an extra issue.

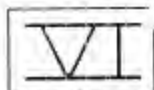

Oh Mc Nag SuperBuddy Book will be shipped this time. She's too shy.

BRNA 7A: TURKISH (A Alb-Ser) failed.

MURKWOOD: What is this web of guile the Russos-Serbs are weaving? First Turkey wags but Germany declines to cut the critical support, now Germany attacks (forgetting aside unit) and Turkey declines to cut the support! One somehow doubts the standoff will survive this year, but woe! Meanwhile, the Turk under Adm Abdul Ahmud Emir has bloodied the Royal Navy's nose in 10/11. Is there a stable tripartite split at home or will it continue to a definite (and probably unpleasant) conclusion?

WORMTONGUE AT ATLANTIC!! ROYAL NAVY GATHERS!

VIII

Spring 1989

1994JU

THE PRIME—Generalissimo (and as it is claimed, His Highness) Wormtongue staged a "private" special unit for the Central World's press corps as he dipped his big toe into Atlantic waters and poured a real of water from the beer barrel into the waves near Brazil. Considering the eastward flow of water from this great Atlantic into the Med, and the other flow from the Black Sea to the Med, this small vat of water may be the first that has not been the subject of any Marina or the Atlantic in a more than the way applied to the geological time of several tens of millions. Look what I have brought!

Meanwhile, the Italians give every indication of rolling over and dying (what? a vision of Machiavelli trying to look passive eye the critical work?) But there is no rulerable spirit. Boris taught Wormtongue too well; the Brits are assembling a war that could set the Wormtongue of DRE and eventually all non-Med coastal areas.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Ref Times—If the English and Italian governments could lend support to Germany, the British armies could be killed/burned.

New Orleans Mallet Wrapper—Deja Vu, the world famous psychic from Budapest advised a crowd of tourists today by showing up on Bourbon Street, going into a trance and shouting out her latest prognostication, "The world will have peace and prosperity within 2 years from today!" she proclaimed. "But an archid from another dimension will destroy it and will remove the axis of the world!" Then she prepared a pot of boiling water, threw a load into it, and proclaimed "This shall it be throughout the universe and forever!" No one yet understands these prophesies, but Deja's record so far is 100%.

Vienna View—Archiduke Wormtongue ordered a day of celebration throughout the realm for the return of peace and prosperity to the world. "While there are minor cleanup operations still being conducted to eliminate the anarchy in the outlying territories the world can once again rest in peace knowing that I am in charge. Those upstarts who have been raping the world and abusing her children will no longer trouble us. Our programs to promote the purity of the Austrian gene pool will be able to start in the next few months. Finally, peace and prosperity at last!" he announced.

ERRATA: German F Ska-Ber succeeded, as is evidenced by the Supply Center Chart.

CLEARWINE: Lack of vodka "hot" have caused a Russian Navy mutiny. This is clearly a British piece of subterfuge as the RN kills "hot" or rum to every able seaman. The mutiny seems to have paralyzed Tour Wayne. Deep seasonal crises probably haven't helped. Meanwhile, two other nations suffered from interservice communication SHAUw. Italian F IOU wasn't ordered to carry A SMY to TUS. Nor was French A PIC ordered to WAL. "Bad staff work" chuckled Henry Ford. "It couldn't happen here."

Imperial News Agency: Archduke Keen this season called the Russian Ambassador to the Palace for explanations of Moscow's problems with the war in the north. The Emperor cannot find itself allied to a power letting potential enemies into reach of Imperial lands. Therefore in a purely defensive act, Austria has ordered land forces into Rumania to ensure that the Balkans are not threatened due to problems in the north.

PARIS: It is noticed here that this game seems to be played by a bunch of guys who have played together in other games and are now working together in ways that would not be the case if things are more open to the "newcomer". We now have everyone attacking us from all sides. If these guys were playing according to the list of THIS game some of them would NOT be doing that. I am sorry I'm the "newcomer" guys, but how about playing a real game that makes sense, some of you have already lost because of how things are going and you are still playing away like it's another game. It is sad. Hope you will allow me to be a part of the "gang" in the next game. Right now all France can do is surrender and fight a rear guard action.

ROME: The War Ministry today announced a recall of the Italian army from the conflict in Turkey. The Eastern fleet will continue the "above the flag" tour by adding visits to Russian ports in the vicinity. Also troops visiting France will take in sunny SPA for the spring break (fun on Costa del Sol) and other Balkan army units will be moving about importantly and doing glorious military things, well gloriously.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Geneva Gossip: The Sultana has abdicated in favor of her cousin, Prince Vlad, in whose remote Transylvanian castle she sleeps. Left holding the fort, as well as the bag, AANK first is a spoilport catastrophe as the advancing troops and proceed to burn Ankara to the ground, beginning the infamous burning sands defense. Meanwhile Adm. Linguini and the Pope are somewhere in the Med diving for lost Atlantis in hopes of finding weapons to recover his Turkish homeland. Meanwhile Gen. Tetragini and the Emperor were spotted in the Casbah swilling intragasticular wine smuggler Diana Solo. Meanwhile Bashir Geciantor and his Camel Corps are headed to India, trailing their traveling circus. Interesting entertainers from all over the Balkan area have joined them. And following the arrival of the Sultana in Prince Vlad's castle, the Loyal Order of Carpathian Assassins has begun its own resistance movement to drive all invaders from their monarch's homeland.

SILVERTON CABOOSE CHAT

MORISON: Congrats to Bill, next time I will not overextend myself and buy claims I can't reach with profits unearned.

WORDELMANN: What can I say? I personally can't believe that an optional rule to this game is that the defender turns pay «double». They served me well, along with a few opusculum die rolls. Thanks to all who participated. And thanks to Paul for rolling all those stick marked dice.

G.M.: I thought early on that Geist would win it, but the Claim cards didn't keep coming. Morrison truly got caught between Boyle and Charybdis when his profitable coal seams went belly up and due to silver speculating out in Silverton, he didn't have the cash to drive to Denver and get himself a better coal market. The Ziske-Chinnery trade helped both, but not enough, soon enough. Don's peripatetic lifestyle was a hindrance here. The goddess Fortuna smiled upon Bill, and he boldly snatched her favors and muddled them into a run-away victory. Well done!

By the way, the Mr Nar you should thank for the die rolls and card draws.

BRITANNIA House rules for Bori the Spider

The system, adapted from Scott Cameron's Protoss, follows:

1. All standard rules apply, including changes, clarifications, and errata published in The General except as modified below. Turns will be in proper sequential order.
2. Each issue the GM will request orders for some or (ideally) all of the nationalities in play. Players should take into account as many contingencies as possible and submit conditional orders to cover them. If something weird happens, the Turn will be halted. The goal is to get through this in the minimum number of issues. E-mail will be used to update players to accomplish this.
3. Your orders should include:
 - a) Retreat orders for all your armies, indicating where and under what conditions you will retreat. Lacking these orders, the GM will only retreat an army that is outnumbered 4-1 (Romans and few count as two, so 60 defenders in hills), to best defensive terrain (highest point score for the defender, or a random 4).
 - b) Placement of new armies.
 - c) Movement orders for your units. Include start and ending locations. If you're invoking an obscure rule, quote it.
4. Conditional orders are encouraged, as long as they are based on whatever may have happened before that point or on a rules interpretation.
5. Standard abbreviations: A = army, C = cavalry unit, P = Roman fort, R = ruler.
6. To start the game, the Roman player should send orders for both impulses of their Major Invasion. The Belgae, Brigantes, and Welsh players should begin retreat/submission conditions.
7. These Rules can be changed by GM edict or on unanimous vote of the players. Suggestions for improvement are both welcome and solicited.
8. The Irish extension variant (The General, 3.0, #2, pp. 12 & 35) may be played upon unanimous agreement of the players.

*PRESS:

Kevin, in regards to your "press" to me and Orange. You're right, I saw Green as more of a threat than you, and that's why I passed him the Sajoq Turke. Unfortunately, someone like Orange or Asue didn't get the Mongols to attack them. Had the Franks attack (which I thought would be a nice safe area like North Africa and go to the Middle East, pick up some precious points and maybe recover my monument in Upper Egypt. Where could I really attack Green with the Franks anyhow? I didn't feel the need to attack Asue's holdings in Europe, nor leave a lot there to be attacked by the Vikings and Holy Romans. I sure didn't expect the Vikings to want to kick me out of Africa and expected the Sajoq to clean up in China instead of trying to go south. PS

But if these ponderable questions can be conceived of by them and my fellow Merchants, perhaps it will sink them down while we Quads fly right speed out by. I must average Jerry's death. PLAYS

Marcia Victoria adjusts her clothing to make adequate room for victory garlands, etc.

Lucius Lucius Griner explained the driver's absence from last month's map: "Well, personally, he's whipped the rap out of the horses and they can't have much left in 'em, so he just wants to get around and finish without any more dust up with the others, so he's sort of making around in the dust hoping no one notices him."
